

Search and Selection Consulting Professional primary roles and responsibilities

The job entails distinct areas of thrust and focus:

1. Identify Clients Pain Points, Connect with LoB, Establish Relationship, Trust and Secure buy in of clients and manage the relationship through the entire life cycles of talent acquisition.
 - a. Understand Clients Business Background, Identify their competitors.
 - b. Secure Hiring Managers top 5 preferences and expectations. Budgets for the positions and room for additional leverage. If there is any joining bonus or other hiring sweeteners?
 - c. Get the Master Service Agreement Signed and Circulated among key stake holders.
 - d. Meet the stakeholders in the client company and forge a strong rapport.
 - e. Understand the recruitment process
 - i. Shortlisting Process
 - ii. Interview Process
 - iii. Number of rounds before offer stage.
 - iv. Offer roll out process.
 - v. Invoice Submission and Payment Process
2. Identify, Reach out, Attract, Assess, Acquire & place selected candidates with our clients.
 - a. Prepare a search approach documents and discuss the same with the immediate hiring manager at the clients end as well as reporting manager at TSMSP.
 - b. Identify a target company long list. (Sync this data with internal & client hiring team)
 - c. Arrive at a Candidate long list. (Sync this data with internal & client hiring team)

- d. Post which secure the clients concurrence before proceeding to next level?
 - e. Arrive at a candidate short list from the long list provided.
 - f. Position TMSPL Candidates with high degree of confidence after through scrutiny of the candidate credentials and detailed interview of their skills, experiences and aspirations encapsulating the same in a well worded crisp candidate summary brief.
 - g. Schedule and orchestrate meticulous interview process.
 - h. Once client short lists candidates – Prepare a candidate brief for each of them and represent to the recruitment leader and the LoB leader in the client organisation.
 - i. Identify the top candidate and simultaneously prepare a backup candidate.
 - j. Ensure smooth roll out of offers post candidate negotiations on comp & ben and other general terms and conditions.
 - k. Once offer is rolled out, secure candidates commitment on joining date and recheck if he/she has any apprehensions, doubts, clarifications etc on the offer.
 - l. Informally connect with the candidate and seek if he/she is pursuing other career options.
 - m. Stay closely connected with the candidate and reminds him on the joining date with details on joining formalities and document preparations needed for on boarding.
 - n. Once the candidate joins the company m diligently prepare an invoice and submit the same with the clients' accounts team.
 - o. Follow Up for Payments and also check if the candidate is finding his way through the new organisation thru his/her early days. Identify alarm signals and alert the hiring manager if you find any analogies that could jeopardise the search engagement.
 - p. Secure Payment and Close the Hiring Process while documenting all the steps for TMSPL records
3. Develop and proliferate an active professional network of potential candidates.
 - a. Curate an active list of potential candidates and assort them by select competencies, skills, and experience and cost brackets.
 - b. Prepare a contact plan and schedule to keep abreast of their potential progress.
 - c. Identify key candidates who can be nurtured as strong reference sources.
 - d. Seek their motivations and expectations and advise TMSPL management on a incentive and reward plan for references.
 - e. Connect and collate the above list through both online social networks as well as an offline excel database sheet.
 4. Connect with hiring managers across the industry and develop them as strong reference sources. You could also leverage their relationships to seek an informal background checks for our candidates.